

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

What happened to the snake's legs?

Learning Outcome

Describe characteristics of different people and their jobs.

Ask your partner:

- What myths or legends about animals do you know?
- What are they about?

Can Do Statements

- I can use past time expressions.
- I can talk about or report on actions, events or people.
- I can tell a story.

Let's Explore!

The storyteller tells the myth of how the snake lost its legs. Let's listen!

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Long ago in Africa, the moon told the animals that there wouldn't be any rain that year. They became frightened and ran away but the snake didn't.

The snake had legs like the other animals. He was proud, and wanted to stay. "I am not worried," he said.

Days passed and still no rain. The snake decided it was time to leave. He began his journey through the desert. Soon, he was tired and couldn't walk anymore. He fell to his knees. He begged the moon to help him. He promised he would never be proud again. The moon looked down and felt sorry for him.

She took away his legs, and he slid through the sand and crossed the desert. The snake never walked on two legs again, and from that day on he gave up his pride.

Let's Practice!

Can you tell me that story again?

Instructions: Practice reading the sentences aloud.

1. All the animals ran away but the snake didn't.
2. He was proud, and wanted to stay.
3. The snake decided it was time to leave.
4. He began his journey through the desert.
5. He promised he would never be proud again.
6. The snake gave up his pride.

Let's Practice!

Do you remember the story that you read?

Instructions: Read the sentences. Fill in the blank with the missing word. Use the past tense:

The moon (tell) _____ the animals that there wouldn't be any rain that year. The snake was not (worry) _____.

The snake was tired and (fall) _____ to his knees. He (beg) _____ the moon to help him. He promised he would never be proud again. The moon looked down and (feel) _____ sorry for him. She (take) _____ away his legs, and he (slide) _____ through the sand and crossed the desert.

Extension Activity

Write your own myth!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Brainstorm some ideas about how you think the snake lost its legs.
- Choose one idea. Write a short myth. Use the Simple Past tense.
- Proofread your myth.
- Give your myth to a partner.
- Read their myth.
- Discuss your myths. What did you like? What was funny? Interesting?

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I tell a story.

☐ ☐

I use the Simple Past tense.

☐ ☐

I discuss with my partner.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- to frighten (verb): to make someone or something feel afraid
e.g. The animals frightened her.
- proud (adjective): having respect for yourself
e.g. He was too proud to leave.
- to worry (verb): to think a lot about something you are scared about e.g. He was worried about what the queen would do.
- journey (noun): a period of time spent travelling from one place to another
e.g. The snake started his long journey across the desert.
- to beg (verb): to ask for something because you want it very much e.g. He begged the queen not to take away his powers.
- to promise (verb): to tell someone that you will do something e.g. The snake promised to be kind.
- to feel sorry for (expression): to feel pity for someone because they are in a bad situation
e.g. He felt sorry for the lion and helped him.
- to take away (expression): to remove
e.g. The evil queen took away his powers.
- pride (noun): a feeling that you like and respect yourself and that you deserve to be respected
Example: The father was full of pride as his child graduated.

Learning Points

The Simple Past Tense

You use the Simple Past tense to tell a story.

Simple Past tense verbs can be regular or irregular.

Regular verbs end in -ed or -ied.

Irregular verbs change in different ways.

Verb	Simple Past Tense
to tell	told
to run	ran
to become	became
to lose	lost
to have	had
to fall	fell
to slide	slid
to begin	began

Examples:

- She told me an interesting legend.
- It was about an elephant.
- The elephant had a great fall.

Learning Points

Past Time Expressions

When you talk about things that happened in the past, you can use a Past time expression.

Here is a list of Past time expressions:

- Last (night/week/year)
- This (week/year)
- Many years/A long time ago
- When ... was/were
- Days/Weeks/Months passed
- From that day/then on

Examples:

- A long time ago, in a far away place there lived a man ...
- Months passed, and the prince didn't come back.
- From that day on, it started to rain.

