

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Pronunciation Spot: Sally takes a journey into the heart of Africa.

Learning Outcome

Describe characteristics of different people and their jobs.

Ask your partner:

- What are the big 5 animals of Africa?
- Would you like to go on a safari? Why or why not?

Can Do Statements

- I can pronounce the contrasting consonant sounds th, d and z.
- I can talk about travel and things to do on a trip.
- I can identify key information in a short audio.

Let's Explore!

Sally is on a safari in Africa. Listen as she reads her blog to a fellow tourist.

* "Fellow" means a person who is in the same group.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Hello from the heart of Africa. It's Sally's Suitcase.

Another wonderful day in the bush! We saw zebras in the thick bush, buzzards flying overhead and elephants drinking at the water's edge. I'm learning so much about nature! Patrick, our guide and driver, explains everything. His knowledge of the area and its inhabitants is pretty amazing. He shows us how every animal, bird, plant, and insect is beautiful in its own way, and how each is necessary. He is happy to answer any questions we might have. Luckily, he speaks French, Spanish and English.

I can see why it's important for us to look after our world. We're only one small part of this perfect cycle. It is through these experiences that you realize where you fit into the world. That's probably the most important lesson there is to learn here.

Let's Practice!

What do you hear? Let's practice commonly mispronounced sounds.

Instructions: Read the text. Check off the correct box in the table. There is one answer per question.

	th	z	d
thick
zebra
drinking desert
driver
through

Let's Practice!

What does Sally learn about her guide, Patrick, and his love of nature?

Instructions: Draw a line from the first part of the statement on the left to the second part on the right.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1. That's probably the most | answer any questions we might have. |
| 2. Patrick, our guide and | driver, explains everything. |
| 3. He is happy to | you realize where you fit into the world. |
| 4. I'm learning so | much about nature! |
| 5. It is through these experiences that | important lesson there is to learn here. |
| 6. Luckily, he speaks | French, Spanish and English. |

Extension Activity

With a partner, practice the th, d and z sound.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Read the table below aloud.
- Read the following phrases that use both the th and d sounds.
 - What does this do?
 - Don't do that.
 - My brother's dog
 - Don't breathe
 - Another day
- Write 3 sentences using 6 of the words in the table.
- Read the sentences aloud.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I pronounce difficult sounds with a partner.

☐ ☐

I write 3 sentence that use these sounds.

☐ ☐

I read the sentences aloud.

☐ ☐

Th Sound	D Sound	Z Sound
they	day	zone
their	dare	zebra
those	doze	zodiac
than	Dan	zap
worthy	wordy	zoom
breathe	breed	zeal

Target Words

- safari (noun): a journey to see or hunt animals
e.g. Sally is on safari.
- in the heart of (expression): in the middle of a place
e.g. Sally is in the heart of Africa.
- buzzard (noun): a large bird that eats animals that are dead
e.g. There were buzzards flying overhead.
- to fit (verb): to belong in a particular situation, place, or group e.g. Through experience you realize where you fit in the world.
- insect (noun): a small animal that has six legs
e.g. There were so many insects on our tour.
- cycle (noun): a set of events or actions that happen again and again in the same order
e.g. We are all part of the life cycle.

Learning Points

Consonant Sounds: Th, D and Z

Certain sounds can be difficult to say and use together.

The sounds that th, d and z make are similar. However, each sound is created differently.

To make the th sound:

Bite your tongue, and then blow, letting the air come in the upper part of your tongue.

To make the d sound:

The sound happens when your tongue taps the roof of your mouth to stop the air, then quickly releases.

To make the z sound:

Your teeth come together to make the Z, and your tongue is pushed against your teeth.

Say these words together: think, drink, zinc or through, drew, zoo

