Target Words

- safari (noun): a trip to see wild animals, especially in Africa
e.g. I would like to go on a safari.
- unforgettable (adjective): something you will never forget e.g. This will be an unforgettable trip!
- untouched (adjective): not changed or affected in any way
e.g. This is a place that is untouched by man.
- the bush (noun): an area of land that is free of humans; wild e.g. We are in the bush of southern Africa.
- jeep (noun): a type of car made for traveling over rough ground
e.g. Drive in an open jeep through Africa.
- to accompany (verb): to go somewhere with someone e.g. A guide will accompany you.
- armed guard (noun): a guard who carries a gun
e.g. An armed guard will accompany the jeep.
- luxury tent (noun): a large shelter that consists of a sheet of white canvas supported by poles and ropes
e.g. Relax in your own luxury tent.
- base camp (noun): the main campsite which provides supplies, shelter, and communications for people on a safari
e.g. If you get lost, meet us at the base camp.
- delta (noun): an area of low land where a river spreads into many smaller rivers
e.g. Explore the deltas of Africa.

Learning Points

The Language of Advertising

You use the Imperative form to give an order, a warning, advice, and to make a request. Advertisers often use Imperatives to create excitement.

To make the Imperative, you use the base form of the verb. You do not use a subject. The verb is at the beginning of the sentence, so it is stressed.

Examples:

- Book your trip today!
- Enjoy delicious meals!
- Experience Mother Nature!

Learning Points

Geographic Features

When you talk about geographical features, you talk about natural things like bodies of water, plants, and how the land looks.

Geographic features include things like:

desert		hill
mountain		island
the bush		delta
river
