

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Writing Spot: Time to learn about cultures and traditions in Africa!

Learning Outcome

Describe characteristics of different people and their jobs.

Ask your partner:

- What stories do you know from the past?
- What famous stories are there in your culture?

Can Do Statements

- I can write a narrative paragraph.
- I can report on actions, events or people in the past.
- I can write about customs and traditions.

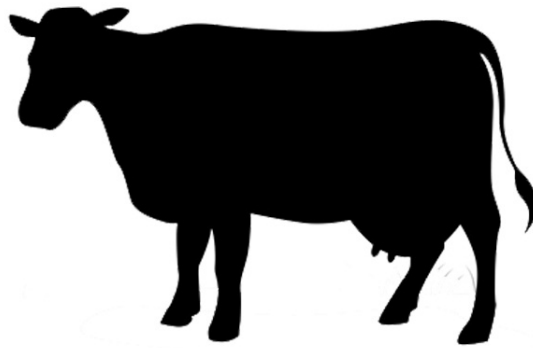

Let's Explore!

Listen to a traditional African story. Pay attention to the sentences*.

* In a "story" the passive voice is used when focusing on the person or thing affected by an action.

 Passive "sentences" are formed with: Passive Subject + To Be + Past Participle

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Once there was a young man named Helo, from the Pokot tribe in Kenya. In his tribe, a person's wealth was measured by how many cows a family had. As a small child, Helo often dreamed of having hundreds of cows and vast areas of land. Sadly, he was from a poor family, having only a few hungry goats to call their own.

During a walk to get fresh water, Helo was approached by some businessmen from the city. They told him of the riches to be made in far off lands. Although Helo wished for wealth and stature in society, he politely declined their offer. That night he was awoken by the sound of noise and cries.

Suddenly, the village was set ablaze by a rebel group. Helo grabbed his younger sister, and led all the cattle to safety despite having none of his own. The tribe celebrated his thoughtfulness and bravery by singing traditional songs. He was given five cows by the chief. In the end, his courage was recognized.

Let's Practice!

How do you link sentences in a story? Let's practice narrative writing.

Instructions: Organize the mystery sentences. Write each word in the correct order.

1. Helo, / was / tribe / man / Once / young / named / Kenya. / in / Pokot / the / from / a / there

2. his / recognized. / courage / the / end, / was / In

3. Helo / city. / get / fresh / During / from / by / walk / was / water, / the / to / a / approached / businessmen / some

4. village / a / ablaze / set / the / rebel / Suddenly, / been / had / by / group.

Let's Practice!

Do you remember the events in the Pokot tribe in Kenya?

Instructions: Read the sentences. Fill in the blank with the missing word.

1. In his tribe, a person's _____ was measured by how many cows a family had.
2. Sadly, he was from a poor family, having only a few hungry _____ to call their own.
3. The tribe _____ his thoughtfulness and bravery by singing traditional songs.
4. Although Helo wished for wealth and _____ in society, he politely declined their offer.

Extension Activity

You are a storyteller. Share one of your stories about Africa.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Research an African tribe on the Internet.
- Write a 80-100 word narrative based on your research.
- Use linking words and conjunctions.
- Include characters, a setting, a plot and a conclusion.
- Read your story to a friend or family member.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I research information on African tribes.

☐ ☐

I write a narrative.

☐ ☐

I use linking words and conjunctions.

☐ ☐

I include characters, a setting, a plot and a conclusion.

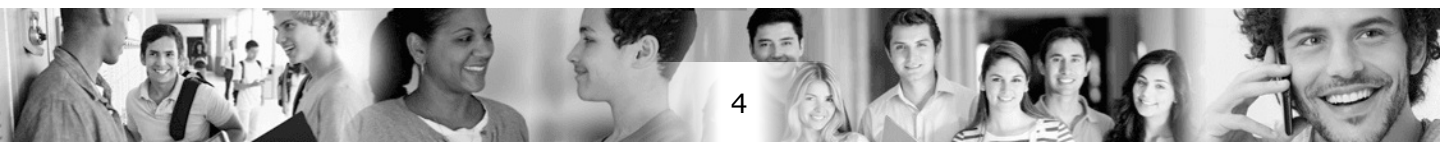

☐ ☐

I read my story aloud.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- vast (adjective): very great in size, amount, or extent
e.g. Helo often dreamed of having hundreds of cows and vast areas of land.
- stature (noun): the level of respect that people have for a successful person
Example: Although, Helo wished for wealth and stature in society, he politely declined their offer.
- rebel group (noun): a group who opposes or fights against a government e.g. The rebel group set the village on fire.
- courage (noun): the ability to do something that you know is difficult or dangerous
e.g. Helo showed a lot of courage.
- goat (noun): a small animal that is related to the sheep
e.g. His family owned a few goats.

Learning Points

Conjunctions

You use conjunctions for different reasons in sentences. A comma is always placed before the conjunction.

Here are their main uses:

Use	Conjunction	Example
Addition / Next Action	and	John enjoys playing soccer, and he likes cooking. Vanessa and Sally drove home, and they went to bed.
Opposition - Unexpected Results	but / yet	We wanted to visit our friends in San Francisco, but we didn't have enough money to buy a ticket. Vanessa did very well on her job interview, yet she didn't get the internship.
Cause/ Effect	or / so	Sally needed some new clothing for her trip, so she went shopping.

Examples:

- Helo grabbed his younger sister, and led all the cattle to safety despite having none of his own.

Learning Points

Linking Words

You use certain words to link sentences together in a narrative.

Narration or an event sequence

- | | | |
|--------------------|---------------|--------------|
| • First of all | • After | • Suddenly |
| • At first | • After that | • As soon as |
| • To begin with | • Afterwards | • Finally |
| • In the beginning | • While | • Eventually |
| • To begin with | • During | • At the end |
| • Then | • Soon | • In the end |
| • Next | • Immediately | • At last |
| • Before | • Once | • Until |

Expressing purpose	Expressing effect	Summing up
• To • So as to • In order to • So that	• So • Therefore • Thus • Consequently	• To sum up • In short • In brief • Briefly speaking

Examples:

- Helo often dreamed of having hundreds of cows and vast areas of land.
- In the end, his courage was recognized.

